

Rules of conduct:

General rules:

- Treat all participants with respect
- You are liable for any damage you cause
- Always follow the orders of the staff members
- Discrimination of any kind will not be tolerated

Registration and badges:

- You must be over 18 years old on the first day of the convention.
- Badges must be presented upon instruction.

House rules:

- No smoking indoors! Smoking is only allowed in designated areas.
- Exits/emergency exits and safety equipment such as fire extinguishers/fire alarms may not be blocked or covered.
- When leaving the convention area, a message to a staff member must be left for your own safety so that we do not have to search for you.
- Self-made or electrical devices with high consumption are not allowed! Small fans in the rooms are allowed, or you just use the fursuit Lounge.
- Bluetooth boxes or similar are not allowed to be used outside without permission of the staff. In closed rooms they are to be reduced to an appropriate volume, so that nobody feels disturbed. It is a convention that is meant to show you the silence of nature and life without technology and screens. There will be a furdance for the dance and music lovers.
- There will be order around the campfire! Carrying away or playing with the fire is prohibited. We do not want to have burn spots on the area, on persons or on fursuits!
- Garbage brought along must be disposed of by each participant himself, there will be no dung bins or a collective dump! It is best to take only little garbage with you, you must take everything back and dispose of it on your way home.
- Pay attention together for basic hygiene!

Room parties and gatherings:

- At room parties and small gatherings in groups, keep the noise level down to an appropriate level at night. No neighbour should feel disturbed.
- If you are too loud, there will be a warning. In case of repeated incidents, consequences are to be expected.

Clothing and decency:

- The wearing of fursuits, accessories or other items made of real fur or animal remains is prohibited.
- Excessively revealing clothing is prohibited.
- Public expressions of love are permitted to a certain extent, but if someone feels disturbed by them, they must not do so. Look for a room!
- Displaying "NSFW" objects, drawings or wearing "anatomically correct" fursuits and other fetish equipment like latex, rubber or neoprene is not allowed in public areas.
- When wearing a fursuit or partsuit, adequate body coverage must be provided. Showing skin is forbidden. We set a high value on maintaining this culture, preserving the "magic", and clearly prohibiting "poodling".

Alcohol and other substances:

- Drink with responsibility!
- We reserve the right to deny alcohol to heavily alcoholised participants. In case of serious incidents, there may also be consequences for further participation in the convention.
- Any participant who is in possession of, consumes or sells illegal substances will be banned from the convention.

Guns:

- Weapons of all kinds (sharp weapons, alarm guns, soft air weapons, swords, pepper spray, stun guns, etc.) are prohibited. This serves to protect your own person as well as the other participants.
- All objects which by their nature could cause damage to persons will be treated as weapons.
- Replicas that have no function must be examined by the staff.
- Show fights, sword fighting, fire spitting or similar dangerous activities are not allowed.

Hate speeches and symbols:

- Communication in any form that involves discrimination, harassment or violence based on race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, religion, or nationality is prohibited.
- The wearing or carrying out of symbols, gestures or sayings that belong to an extremist group is prohibited.
- This also includes easily confused and modified symbols that are like the above.

Photography and videos:

- We have the right to publish any picture and video material of the convention for non-commercial purposes and without harming anyone.
- Photography and filming in the Pursuit Lounge is prohibited.

Thanks for your cooperation! We want our convention to be a safe and wonderful experience for everyone!

Have fun, be nice to each other and we will have a fun time!
